

Calling time travelers, ages 8 to 10!

Spend a week in 1750
at the Newtown Historical Society's
19th Annual History Camp

July 17 to 21 * 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. * 1 session, limited to 12 campers
All activities take place at Newtown's Matthew Curtiss House, 44 Main Street

If you've ever wondered how kids lived in Newtown in 1750, this hands-on camp is for you!
Activities include:

- Making—and wearing—your own outfit
- Learning what people ate back then: Making lemonade, churning butter, making ice cream!
- Gaming 1750s-style: Making your own marbles, basket weaving, creating a tin lantern...and more
- Learning about life and school in Newtown, including a visit to the historic Meeting House (and a look at the stockade!)
- For more information see www.newtownhistory.org/camp.shtml

Cost is $175 per camper (or $150 for Historical Society members)

Spots are limited and allocated on a first-come, first-serve basis.

To reserve your child's place:

- Scan the QR code at right or go to our website and complete the online application form or print and fill out the printable form.
- Send your $25 deposit (check payable to the Newtown Historical Society) to the address on the form.

We're happy to answer your questions!
